Membership Categories:

Full Members. Full Members shall be individuals who have shown evidence of continuing active involvement or expertise in a clinical histocompatibility or research laboratory, or in a laboratory performing work related to this field. An application for Full Membership shall be supported by at least two sponsors who shall be current Full Members of the Society. Full Members have voting privileges for the election of officers and are eligible to serve as officers or committee members.

Technologist Members. Technologist Members shall be non-doctoral and non-supervisory individuals in the fields of histocompatibility and/or immunogenetics who are new to the field or are not prior Full Members. Applications for Technologist Membership shall be supported by at least two sponsors who shall be current Full Members of the Society. Individuals are eligible to maintain this membership for a maximum of three (3) years. A Technologist Member shall be eligible to apply for Full Membership at any time s/he satisfies the qualifications for Full Membership. Technologist members are not eligible to vote, hold office or be a committee chair or vice-chair but may otherwise serve on committees.

Student/Fellow Members. Student/Fellow Members shall be individuals involved in, or who have shown interest in, the field of histocompatibility and/or immunogenetics. An application for Student/Fellow Membership shall be supported by at least two sponsors who shall be current Full Members of the Society. Individuals are eligible to maintain this membership for the duration of their status as a student or fellow with written documentation from their advisor. A Student/Fellow Member shall be eligible to apply for Full Membership at any time s/he satisfies the qualifications for Full Membership. Student/Fellow Members are not eligible to vote, hold office or be a committee chair or vice-chair but may otherwise serve on committees.

International Associate. International Associate Members shall be international individuals involved in histocompatibility and/or immunogenetics. An international individual is defined as anyone not residing and/or working in North America or U.S. Territories. An application for International Associate Membership shall be supported by at least one sponsor who shall be a current Full Member of the Society. An International Associate Member shall be eligible to apply for Full Membership at any time s/he satisfies the qualifications for Full Membership. International Members are not eligible to vote, hold office or serve on committees.

Institutional Membership – Laboratories, hospitals, universities and other institutions having interest in the fields of histocompatibility and/or immunogenetics are eligible for Institutional Membership. Institutional Members are not eligible to vote, hold office or serve on committees.

Emeritus Membership – Individuals who have worked in histocompatibility and/or immunogenetics and have contributed to ASHI. They must be retired from all employment and have been a Full Member of ASHI for more than 15 years. Emeritus Members are not eligible to vote, hold office or be a committee chair or vice-chair, but may otherwise serve on committees.
